Protecting & Nurturing Children: At Mothers Without Borders, protecting and nurturing children is foundational to our work. We believe every child deserves to grow up in a safe, supportive, and loving environment. Through our Jo Rescue Program and Children's Resource Center (CRC), we provide urgent care and long-term support to children who have experienced abuse, neglect, exploitation, or the loss of their primary caregivers.

The Jo Rescue Program offers a comprehensive support system for pregnant adolescents who have been victims of sexual abuse and assault, placing the young women in safe homes where they receive loving care, prenatal medical support, counseling, trauma therapy, and the Educating Children & Youth: At Mothers Without Borders, we believe that education is one of the most powerful tools for breaking the cycle of poverty and creating self-sufficient futures. That's why we support children and youth with access to quality education, nutritious meals, and a safe, supportive environment where they can grow, learn, and thrive.

On our Lusaka West property, we operate a primary school for over 800 children from the surrounding community where children receive education and daily school lunch. This school provides first through seventh grade education, after which many of the students continue onto our Youth Empowerment programs which provide higher education and Empowering Youth & Women: At Mothers Without Borders, we believe that empowering youth and women is essential to building strong, resilient communities. Our work is rooted in the understanding that when women and young people have the tools, skills, and support to thrive, they can overcome barriers, break cycles of poverty, and transform the future for themselves and those around them.

Participation in our Youth Empowerment Programs grew from 526 youth in 2023 to 1,627 in 2024, thanks in part to a strategic partnership with UNICEF, which expanded our reach and capacity. These programs include mentorship, life skills development, leadership training, and support for continued education or vocational training. Graduates of our youth countries through a holistic approach to community empowerment, particularly focusing on the most vulnerable women, youth, and children. Our work is rooted in our commitment to nurture human potential, ensuring that every initiative is not just a temporary fix but a step towards lasting change.

Form 990, Part I, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:
We envision a day where each community is equipped and empowered to develop sustainable solutions to the problems that place their children in crisis. This vision is brought to life through engaging with communities to spearhead initiatives that are conceived, developed, and sustained by the very people they aim to benefit. By amplifying local voices and knowledge, we construct programs that are culturally appropriate and contextually relevant and always focused on empowering individuals to lead self-sufficient lives.

opportunity to continue their education. In 2024, we supported ten girls who had given birth and one who was pregnant.

The Children's Resource Center is a residential center where children live until we can find them a safe home with relatives/foster families or until they turn 18 years old. Starting as a small program with 14 children who were rescued off the streets, the Center has since grown to support more than 400 children over the 20 years of its operation who have been brought in from situations of abuse, abandonment, trafficking, or the death of parents. While in our care, we focus on providing healthy family-centered relationships and encourage each child to discover a love for education and community service and to develop their hobbies and talents. During 2024, we cared for 110 children in residence providing education, food, and all health-related needs; including HIV treatment, grief counseling, access to caring adults, skills training, and recreation therapy.

programs may also join our entrepreneurial training and microloan initiative, which helps them start small businesses and achieve financial independence. In 2024, 19 youth empowerment graduates accessed loans.

Additionally, our Women's Clubs expanded significantly in 2024, increasing from 6 groups to 24, serving 380 women (up from 174 in 2023). These clubs offer a powerful combination of peer support, entrepreneurial training, and access to microloans, enabling women to start or grow income-generating businesses. In addition to improving household income, the clubs provide a vital network of solidarity and empowerment for women navigating poverty, widowhood, and caregiving.

We provided funding that supports part or full time employment to 98 Zambians during 2024 (an increase from 94 Zambian employees in 2023) who run all programming in Zambia, providing income to the families of each employee and ensuring our programs are 100% locally led.
